Gold & Silver Circle Honorees Announced

August 28, 2025 - The National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (NATAS-NCCB) is pleased to announce the 2025 inductees to the prestigious Gold & Silver Circles.

The 2025 honorees join an impressive group of industry professionals who have helped shape the broadcast industry and continue to influence its future. These leaders have inspired excellence and innovation in every communications discipline. Devoting more than a quarter-century for Silver Circle or half-century for Gold Circle to the broadcast industry, these remarkable media professionals have made significant contributions to the National Capital Chesapeake Bay community.

"I am delighted to celebrate this honor with the newest members of our EMMY Chapter's "Hall-of-Fame," said Capital Emmys President Adam Longo. "It's with enormous pride we welcome our first ever Silver Circle inductees from the Bristol and Charlottesville, Virginia TV markets in addition to the inductees from Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Norfolk and Roanoke."

With the induction of the 2025 honorees, the Silver Circle totals 288 and the Gold Circle totals 30. "Those we honor will join the ranks of other past inductees including Sam Donaldson, Gordon Peterson, Judy Woodruff, Ted Koppel, Bob Schieffer, Maureen Bunyan, and Jim Vance," said Longo.
